

wisconsin's no call act was the first in line to protect our privacy at home, and should be allowed to remain intact. There is no reason companies need to use the phone for any contact for advertising. I would actually like to see our bill extended to cover 'charitable' organizations as well. They are beginning to become a nuisance.